

Save the date for the inaugural event in THE CHARLES DOAK LECTURE SERIES

Friday, February 24, 2012
12 noon - 2:00 pm

Professor Jeffrey Stout
of Princeton University will speak on Scholarship, Religion, Activism

based on his newest book Blessed Are The Organized
— vivid stories of people fighting entrenched economic and political interests through progressive grassroots organizing.

URC Building
900 Hilgard Ave, Los Angeles, CA 90024
Complimentary luncheon will be served.

At Princeton since 1975, Professor Stout is Director of Graduate Studies in Religion. In addition to being a member of the Department of Religion, he is associated with the Departments of Philosophy and Politics, the Center for the Study of Religion, and the Center for Human Values. He is also past president of the American Academy of Religion.

SPONSORED BY URC, THE CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF RELIGION AT UCLA, WESTWOOD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, AND UNIVERSITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

